

Quotation

Borgo Il Poggiaccio (Sovicille) → Antinori nel Chianti Classico (Bargino) and back · Saturday 19 September 2026

Prepared for Trevor Bailey · 18 September 2026 · Ref. GM-2026-0919-TB

The vehicle

A single minibus for your group of 18-20 guests, with the same driver for the whole day.

Mercedes-Benz Beluga — 26 passenger seats plus driver, 7.64 m. Air conditioning, reclining ultra-comfort seats, fridge bar, on-board audio system, large luggage hold.

With 18-20 guests on board, six to eight seats stay free: the group travels comfortably in one vehicle, with no need to split it. The 7.64 m length matters at both ends of the route — the access road to Borgo Il Poggiaccio and the forecourt at Antinori are both straightforward for a vehicle this size, where a full-size coach would meet more than one difficulty.

The service

Saturday 19 September 2026. Distances and journey times are road estimates, traffic excluded.

Notes

- The budget you gave us. You wrote € 250-300 for the round trip, and we will answer plainly, because tomorrow leaves no room for a second exchange of emails: at that figure this service does not exist, not with us and not with any serious operator in the area. The issue is not the distance, about 55 km each way, but the whole day: the vehicle leaves Ponte Buggianese, some 115 km from Sovicille, stays with you into the afternoon and gets back in the evening — around 300 km in all and nine hours of the driver's working day. € 250-300 would barely cover fuel and tolls. We would rather tell you now than accept and serve you badly tomorrow: if the budget cannot move, say so straight away and you still have a day to find another solution. If you can reach the figure above, it works out at about € 50 a head and the vehicle is yours from morning to afternoon.
- Why releasing the vehicle over lunch does not help. It is a fair question: would it not be cheaper to drop you at Bargino, send the minibus home and come back for you? No — it costs more. That means two extra empty runs, roughly 160 km on top, and the price goes up rather than down. Keeping vehicle and driver parked on site is the cheaper of the two arrangements here, as well as the more comfortable one for you, because you decide the return time at the table rather than the day before.
- Availability tomorrow. This quotation holds if the vehicle is free on Saturday 19th: at one day's notice we cannot take that for granted in writing. Call Girolamo on +39 335 587 4744 before anything else — he will confirm availability in two minutes on the phone, and only then is there any point discussing the rest.
- The departure time from Antinori. You gave a window between 15:00 and 16:00. That is fine for us and you do not need to narrow it now: the driver stays on site and leaves when you are ready, up to 16:00. Beyond that hour the € 50.00 hourly waiting charge applies, but in practice it almost never does — if you already know lunch will run later, tell us and we will move the window in the quotation at no extra cost.
- The winery booking. Antinori nel Chianti Classico and the Rinuccio 1180 restaurant receive guests by reservation only, and a party of twenty on a Saturday will not get in without one. Please confirm the exact time they have given you: if the visit starts at 12:00, a 10:45 pick-up is right; if it starts at 11:30, we should leave twenty minutes earlier. Tell us and we will set the departure against it, at no extra cost.
- The driver's meal. The day requires no overnight stay — out and back the same evening — so you have no accommodation cost at all. What remains is the driver's lunch during the four-hour wait at Bargino, which by custom is at the client's charge: we neither quote it nor arrange it. The simplest thing is to add a cover for him when you book at Rinuccio 1180, or to tell the winery there is a driver to look after.
- The pick-up point at the Poggiaccio. The property is reached from the Strada Provinciale Maremmana along a stretch of country road. Our 7.64 m minibus manages it without difficulty, but please have reception confirm the exact boarding point and the turning space for a vehicle of this length: far better settled tonight than tomorrow morning with twenty people and their luggage in hand.
- Payment, given the twenty-four hours. Our house terms are 30% on confirmation and the balance afterwards, but with the service tomorrow a bank transfer will not clear in time. The deposit's transfer receipt counts as confirmation for us, and the balance is settled on the day: agree with Girolamo on the phone how you prefer to close it.
- Cancellation. This should be said plainly: our scale charges 100% of the price within the ten days before the service, and one day remains. Once confirmed, the quotation is due in full even if you pull out. We would rather you knew that before saying yes.

· To confirm we need the final passenger count, the time of the winery booking, a mobile or WhatsApp contact for the person travelling with the group, and your invoicing details. Quotation valid for today, 18 September 2026.

We remain at your disposal and, given the timing, a phone call is worth more than an email.
