Full-day tour of Tuscany, four itineraries to choose from · 12 passengers · departing and returning in Florence

Prepared for Master Group Tour Operator · 21 August 2026 · Ref. GM-2026-0821-MG

The vehicle

One minibus with driver for your group of 12, at your disposal for the whole day, with the same driver from departure to return.

Mercedes-Benz Beluga — 26 passenger seats plus driver, 7.64 m. Air conditioning, reclining ultra-comfort seats, fridge bar, on-board audio system, large luggage hold.

You asked for a Sprinter of sufficient capacity or a minibus: ours is a 26-seat minibus, so with 12 guests on board everyone travels with the seat beside them free and bags stay in the hold rather than around people's feet. On a ten-hour day, with three or four stops and the Tuscan summer heat, that difference tells. And 7.64 m is the right size for this region: it reaches the coach bays at San Gimignano, Monteriggioni and Montepulciano where a 13-metre coach cannot go, and in Florence it falls into the under-8-metre permit band, which costs less.

The pick-up point

Hotel Adamas is at Via Ricasoli 9, a few steps from the Duomo, in the heart of the limited traffic zone. This is worth settling straight away, because it is the real substance of your enquiry: Florence's coach ZTL covers the entire built-up area, twenty-four hours a day, every day of the year, and it applies to any passenger vehicle with more than nine seats. It applies to our 26-seat minibus exactly as it would to a 12- or 16-seat Sprinter: this is not a limitation of the vehicle we are offering, it is the city's regime. There is no picking up at the hotel door, and no serious operator will tell you otherwise. Here is how it is solved.

Option	How it works	Cost
Van shuttle our recommendation	Two vans of up to nine seats — which are allowed into the ZTL — collect you outside the hotel and take you to the minibus at Piazza Vittorio Veneto: a ten-minute run. The same service at the end of the day, to bring you back to the hotel door.	€ 320.00 + VAT return
Taxis, booked by reception	Three taxis for twelve people, same route: taxis are also allowed into the ZTL. Reception at the Adamas books them the evening before and you pay them directly on the spot.	about € 20.00 per taxi, each way
On foot, evening only	On the way back the minibus sets you down at Piazza Savonarola, the authorised point nearest the hotel: 1.4 km, about twenty minutes on foot. It is authorised for setting down only and only between 08:00 and 20:00, so it serves the return, never the departure.	no charge

The morning meeting point is Piazza Vittorio Veneto, by Ponte della Vittoria: it is authorised for both picking up and setting down twenty-four hours a day, without the restrictions on hours or type of service that apply to the other points near the centre. The driver waits for you there with the GiroMunna sign.

The service

Itinerary	Route and programme	Vehicle engaged
A Pisa and Lucca	Florence → Pisa → Lucca → Florence. Meeting point 08:30 at Piazza Vittorio Veneto. Ninety kilometres to Pisa, arriving around 09:45; the vehicle waits at the Via Pietrasantina coach terminal, ten minutes on foot from Piazza dei Miracoli. Departure at 12:30 and 25 km to Lucca, where the vehicle stops outside the walls and you walk into the centre. Return at 17:30, 80 km of motorway, back in Florence around 18:45. About 195 km.	approx. 08:30 – 19:00
B Pisa, Siena and San Gimignano	Florence → Pisa → Siena → San Gimignano → Florence. Departure at 07:30: ninety kilometres to Pisa, then 125 km across Tuscany to Siena, 45 km to San Gimignano and 55 km back. Four stops and over five hours of driving alone, before the visits themselves. By far the longest of the four days: the notes explain why it is worth lightening. About 315 km.	approx. 07:30 – 20:00
C Siena, San Gimignano and Monteriggioni	Florence → Siena → San Gimignano → Monteriggioni → Florence. Departure at 08:30 and 75 km to Siena; then 45 km to San Gimignano, 30 km to Monteriggioni and 55 km back, into town around 19:00. We suggest reversing the order of the stops, putting Monteriggioni first: the notes explain why. About 205 km, which becomes 170 in the order we recommend.	approx. 08:30 – 19:00
D Montalcino, Pienza and Montepulciano	Florence → Montalcino → Pienza → Montepulciano → Florence. Departure at 08:00 and 110 km to Montalcino, arriving around 09:45. Twenty-five kilometres to Pienza and another 15 to Montepulciano, in the heart of the Val d'Orcia; back on the Valdichiana motorway, 120 km, into Florence around 19:45. The finest of the four days and the most demanding on foot: three hilltop towns. About 270 km.	approx. 08:00 – 20:00

Distances and journey times are road estimates, traffic excluded. The times shown are our proposal: we will gladly recalculate around whatever departure time you prefer.

Notes

- There is no picking up at the hotel door, and it is not a question of our vehicle. Florence's coach ZTL applies across the whole built-up area, twenty-four hours a day, and covers any passenger vehicle over nine seats: our 26-seat minibus just as much as a 12- or 16-seat Sprinter. Via Ricasoli, moreover, is narrow and two steps from the Duomo. Picking up and setting down happen at the points authorised by the city, and the nearest one to the Adamas that also allows picking up is Piazza Vittorio Veneto, towards the Cascine, about 2.5 km away. Piazza Savonarola is closer — 1.4 km, about twenty minutes on foot — but it is authorised for setting down only, and only from 08:00 to 20:00: fine for the evening return, not for the morning departure.
- The van shuttle: yes, we can arrange it. This is the answer to your question and the solution we recommend, particularly first thing in the morning and at the end of a long day. Vehicles of up to nine seats fall outside the coach ZTL and reach the hotel door: for twelve people that means two vans, taking you to the minibus in ten minutes. We have quoted it at € 320.00 + VAT for the return trip. One point we would rather make now than later: the vans are not our own vehicles, we provide them through a colleague in Florence, so we confirm them together with the booking and not before.
- Itinerary B asks too much of a single day. Pisa lies west, Siena and San Gimignano south: putting them together means 315 kilometres and over five hours of driving alone, before the visits. Leaving at 07:30 you would be back around 20:00, and in between you are left with two hours in Pisa, three in Siena — lunch included — and two in San Gimignano: the bare minimum for three places of that calibre. Twelve and a half hours out, for a family, is a great deal. We have quoted it all the same because you asked, but if you want our view: drop Pisa and you have itinerary C, or keep Pisa and pair it with Lucca, which is itinerary A. That is two good days rather than one long dash.
- Itinerary C is worth reversing. Monteriggioni sits on the Florence-Siena expressway, essentially on the outward road, whereas in the order you set out you reach it doubling back from San Gimignano. Running Florence → Monteriggioni → Siena → San Gimignano → Florence brings the day down to 170 km instead of 205 and saves almost an hour, which is worth far more on the ground than on the motorway. The price is unchanged: € 1,550.00 either way.
- The hill towns are earned on foot. Siena, San Gimignano, Monteriggioni, Montalcino, Pienza and Montepulciano all close their historic centres to coaches: you are set down at the authorised parks just outside the walls and walk up. At Montepulciano the climb from the coach park to Piazza Grande is steep and takes about twenty minutes. If the family includes elderly travellers, small children or anyone who finds walking difficult, tell us before confirming: it changes the set-down points we request and, in some cases, the order of the stops.
- Driver's meals, and no overnight stay. The day starts and ends in Florence, so the driver returns to base and there is no night to book. Lunch remains, and under our terms it stays at your charge: the simplest arrangement is that he eats wherever the group stops, otherwise we agree a fixed amount in advance. We do not put it in the quotation because we do not arrange it.

- We will set the times together. Those shown are our proposal, built around a full day and normal seasonal traffic: confirm the departure time you prefer and we will recalculate the rest. Waiting beyond the agreed times is charged at € 50.00 per hour. On itineraries B and D an early start is not a detail, it is the condition on which the day works.
- To confirm, what we need first of all is the date. We have one minibus, and in high season the days go weeks in advance: until we have the date we cannot hold anything. The prices above are for a mid-season day; for high-season weekends and public holiday periods they may move, and we would tell you at once. Along with the date we also need the chosen itinerary, the departure time, the final passenger count, whether you want the van shuttle, a phone or WhatsApp contact for whoever travels with the family, and your invoicing details.
- Availability and cancellation. The booking becomes firm on receipt of the deposit. Cancellation is free of charge more than 60 days before the service; from 60 to 30 days the deposit is retained; from 30 to 10 days 50% of the price is charged; in the last 10 days, 100%. This quotation is valid until 20 September 2026.

We remain at your disposal for any clarification and look forward to hearing from you.
