

Quotation

Full day at disposal · Lucca · Forte dei Marmi · winery · Lucca · 16-20 passengers

Prepared on 17 September 2026 · Ref. GM-2026-0917-LV

The vehicle

One minibus with driver for your group, at your disposal from the pick-up in Lucca to the evening return.

Mercedes-Benz Beluga — 26 passenger seats plus driver, 7.64 m. Air conditioning, reclining ultra-comfort seats, fridge bar, on-board audio system, large luggage hold.

With 16 or 20 people on board, six to ten seats stay free — something you notice over a full day. On this itinerary the 7.64 m matter more than the capacity: the Beluga is under eight metres and reaches the Versilia seafront and the hill roads up to the wineries, where a full-size coach cannot go.

The service

Time	Route	Distance
09:00	Lucca → Forte dei Marmi. Pick-up wherever you tell us — if your hotel is inside the walls we agree the nearest accessible point. Arrival in Versilia around 09:45.	38 km · 45 min
09:45 – 13:00	Morning in Forte dei Marmi. Vehicle and driver stay at your disposal: the pier, the town centre, the Wednesday market, the seafront. Short hops within the town are included.	—
13:00	Forte dei Marmi → the restaurant. We take you wherever you have booked: within Forte dei Marmi, or in Pietrasanta, fifteen minutes away and the choice we most often suggest.	0 – 8 km · 15 min
15:30	Restaurant → winery. Two possible directions, both covered by this price: the Candia dei Colli Apuani hills above Massa, or the Colline Lucchesi and Montecarlo on the way back.	25 – 45 km · 40 min
16:15 – 18:30	Visit and tasting. Vehicle and driver wait for you at the winery for the whole visit.	—
18:30	Winery → Lucca. Back to your starting point or your hotel, arriving around 19:30.	15 – 45 km · 30-50 min

The vehicle is engaged for the whole day, roughly 09:00 to 19:30, with the same driver throughout. Times and distances are road estimates: we set them against your final programme once you give us the date, restaurant and winery.

Notes

- The date. Your enquiry does not give one, and without a date we cannot hold the vehicle: there is only one Beluga and it goes by booking order. The price quoted here applies to any day of the year, so as soon as you tell us the date we confirm availability and block the day. One word about timing: on July and August weekends the traffic along the Versilia coast is heavy and every transfer stretches considerably. If you have any choice in the matter, a weekday is a different day altogether.
- Sixteen or twenty, the price is the same. What you see is the price of the vehicle, not a per-head share: on 26 seats your group travels comfortably either way and the amount does not move. We still need the exact number, because our insurance asks for it and because with twenty people boarding and alighting at each stop takes a little longer.
- Restaurant and winery are still open. We have left them so because your enquiry speaks of "a nearby spot" without naming either. For lunch: staying inside Forte dei Marmi keeps you by the sea, while Pietrasanta is fifteen minutes away and has the finest historic centre in the area. For the winery there are two directions. The first is Candia dei Colli Apuani, on the hills above Massa, twenty minutes from the coast: the closest denomination to Forte dei Marmi, with the Apuan Alps behind and the sea in front — Podere Scurtarola or Aurelio Cima, for instance. The second is the Colline Lucchesi and Montecarlo, which sit on the way back to Lucca — Fattoria Sardi, Tenuta di Valgiano or Fattoria del Buonamico at Montecarlo, for instance. These are our suggestions to look into, not bookings: the visit is yours to arrange. Either way the day's mileage is similar and the price does not change.
- If the winery is at Candia, the road is narrow. The final stretch up the Massa hills climbs through hairpins and between stone walls: our 7.64 m minibus gets there, a full-size coach does not. Even so, please have the winery confirm the drop-off point and the manoeuvring space for a vehicle of this length. Far better settled now than at the gate.
- The pick-up point in Lucca. The centre inside the walls is a restricted traffic zone. Send us the exact address of your hotel or meeting point: if we can reach it we collect you there, otherwise we will name the nearest accessible point, which in Lucca almost always means a two-minute walk and no more.
- Forte dei Marmi in high season. From June to September access to the centre and the seafront is regulated and coaches have designated bays outside the town. Being under eight metres we move far more freely than a full-size coach, but the traffic scheme changes from year to year: once the date is fixed we check the one in force and tell you exactly where you get off and where we pick you up.
- How long the day runs. As it stands, from the 09:00 pick-up to the 19:30 return, the programme sits inside the driver's legal driving and duty limits with about an hour to spare, counting the vehicle's run from our base and back. If you want to return to Lucca later than 20:30 — dinner in Versilia, say — it can be done, but it has to be decided beforehand: either the morning start moves later, or we arrange a change of driver. It cannot be improvised on the evening itself.
- The driver's lunch. It remains at your charge and we do not put a figure on it. No overnight stay is needed: the day ends in Lucca and the driver returns to base that evening. The simplest arrangement, and the one nearly all our clients choose, is one more place at your table.

- An alternative worth considering. Several wineries in the area serve lunch alongside the tasting. Merging the two stops removes a midday transfer, gets you up into the hills at an easier pace and leaves the whole afternoon free by the sea. Tell us if it appeals: the price is the same and we will redraw the day for you.
- To confirm we need the date, the final passenger count, the address and time of the pick-up in Lucca, the name and address of the restaurant and the winery, a mobile or WhatsApp contact for the person travelling with the group, and your invoicing details.
- Availability and cancellation. The vehicle is blocked on receipt of the deposit, not before. Cancellation is free of charge more than 60 days before the service; from 60 to 30 days the deposit is retained; from 30 to 10 days 50% of the price is charged; in the last 10 days, 100%. As the service date is not yet fixed, we will work out the applicable band together as soon as you choose it. Quotation valid until 17 October 2026.

We remain at your disposal for any clarification and look forward to hearing from you.
